AMIDAH SEVEN BREATH MEDITATION

[by Rav Kohenet Rabbi Jill Hammer]

Breathing in, I take breath into myself. Breathing out, I join the web of being.

Breathing in, I rest in the present. Breathing out, I am part of past and future.

Breathing in, I honor the shrine of my body. Breathing out, I honor the shrine of the cosmos.

Breathing in, Presence fills me. Breathing out, Presence enfolds me. Breathing in, I witness what is broken. Breathing out, I bow to what is perfect.

Breathing in, I offer gratitude for what is. Breathing out, I accept that all changes.

Breathing in, I pray for peace for myself. Breathing out, I pray for peace for all beings

May God's essence be revealed as great and holy throughout the universes that were created by divine desire. May the realm of the sacred be completed in our lifetime. May the Holy Name be blessed as long as worlds endure, hailed, praised and exalted, though beyond any song or praise or description we could utter. May there be universal peace, life for us, for Israel, and all who dwell on earth. Amen.
